AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent of this position serves as the Program Director for the existing emerging research programs in the Division of Research, Evaluation and Communication, Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR). Primary areas of responsibility include research programs in cultivating the research base for implementing innovative elementary, secondary, and undergraduate education reform strategies to increase the research knowledge and resources devoted to science, mathematics, education, and technology (SMET) teaching and learning.

- Develops new knowledge, new tools, and new syntheses which inform policies and practices for improving the learning of students and whole systems.
- Plans and coordinates meetings with local and national educational associations, school administrators, research organizations and scientific education groups to develop a cohesive plan for evaluating the national impact of NSF funding in SMET education.
- Reviews assigned proposals and evaluations; recommends awards or declinations based on merit, resource availability, and knowledge of NSF and program priorities, policies, and goals. Determines the need for and directs the preparation of technical/administrative guidelines for proposals.
- Negotiates revisions of proposal budgets, advises applicants and grantees concerning NSF policies, program objectives, requirements and negotiations.

- Represents NSF at meetings of professional disciplinary and education organizations; makes presentations on topics related to areas of expertise; engaging in the exchange of information with education leaders.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D or equivalent experience in an appropriate field of mathematics, science, engineering and/or technology education, plus six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Mastery knowledge and background in mathematics and science education, and of the issues regarding the implementation of science standards to science education at grades K-16 (i.e. elementary, secondary, and undergraduate).
- Ability to organize, implement and manage a proposal-driven grant program, allocating resources to meet a large spectrum of program goals.
- Skill in presenting ideas clearly and effectively both orally and in writing.
- Ability to interact with members of the mathematics, scientific and education communities in order to present and advocate program policies and plans.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s).
